SEEDS OF KINDNESS.

Are we sowing seeds of kindness?
Deeds that brighten bright are long;
Can we think that seeds of darkness
They shall ripen into wrong
Are we sowing seeds of kindness?
They shall bring forth precious grain;
Angels planting trees of blessing
Whatever our sowing be,
Reaping, we its fruits shall see.

We can never be too careful
When the seed our hands shall sow;
Careless deeds, hasty in accents,
Seeds of grief or sin we sowing
Kind deeds every one are true;
Be a gladness overflowing
Warm as the harvest day,
Whatever our sowing be,
Reaping, we its fruits must see.

NO BABY IN THE HOUSE.

No baby in the house, I'm sure—
'Tis far too neat and clean;
No toys to entertain the eye
Strewn on the floor are seen;
No baby crushes on the pants,
Impressions on the chairs,
No sticky fingers ever go
Through holes in curtains, stairs;
No baby's mother ever sits
With patient face and arms in vain,
All tired of the game;
No patter, pattering to the door,
No baby laughing to be kissed,
No little hands to fold in prayer,
No little feet to be undressed,
No grandpa here or he to be told,
No sweet smiles he sold;
No cradle down to be put,
No baby's dress to be gone over,
No sunbonnet, "Lucy" and "Bonnie,"
No baby in the house.

A CURIOUS STORY—WAS IT A MIRACLE?

For thirty years Miller, of Bristol, has lived by faith. If he wants money, lands, food, clothes, or health, he goes and asks for it, and gets it. A few men in this country have tried that system with various shades of success. Fulton street presents some remarkable instances of direct answer to prayer; it does not believe human testimony. A man returned from a short time ago, and I read you the facts just as they occurred. The parties are well known, and the facts can be confirmed to the satisfaction of any one. Ministers out of employment drift to New York, partly to get away from the scenes of their former struggle, partly to find employment outside of the profession with which they are identified. As Bristol has had it for a hundred years, because or many such men, it is not surprising that in that locality Brooklyn may be regarded as the rendezvous of preachers without a parish. One of this number has been doing a little business, sometimes up and sometimes down. One Saturday he found himself without a cent, painfully clothed. His purse was without a penny, but as the wages are usually collected on that day, he was not without hope of getting some money. He went home to dinner, ate a hearty and ordered for a loaf of bread on credit until the first week. The storekeeper blandly told him positively. The poor fellow went to his home and ate enough. There was nothing to eat in the house. He called his wife and children together, told them he was penniless, and, without food and said: "My dear children, there is no help from man, let us go to God." The little household knelt in prayer, and went supperless to bed. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the family were aroused by a loud knocking at the door. The husband went down, and found a gentleman waiting to see him. He was a well known merchant of the city, and knew nothing of the distress of the family or that the household was in want. Addressing himself to the occupant of the house, he said: "You may be surprised to see me here at this time of night. I undertook to go to bed, but I could not sleep. I felt impressed that it was my duty to come here. I tried to shake it off, but I could not, and I am here to see if your family want anything." The man told his story from the fullness of his heart. His friend left with him a sum of money, and promised to see the family early on Monday morning.—Late as it was, the relieved gentleman went, and let his sidewalk supply, and spent the night in Thanksgiving. He believes in direct answers to prayer.

A MAIDEN'S FIRST LOVE.—Human nature has no secrets more pure; the world knows nothing more chaste; Heaven has endowed the moral heart with no feelings more holy than the earnest love of a young virgin's soul. The warmest language of the sunny South is too cold to shadow forth even a faint outline of that enthusiastic sentiment. And God has made the richest language for the heart that in all woe's emotions and the sacred for the grandest contemplation. The most cold and callous store the annals of the sweetest thoughts within the human breast, and strain into the most profound heavens of the soul, touching the chords that never vibrated before and coiling into general companionship feelings not even then unknown. Yes, the light of a young maiden's first love is one dearly but tenderly upon her, as the silver beams of a star glimmers through the thickly warm bower; the first blush that mantles her cheeks as she feels the primal influence is as faint and pure as that which a cherished angel cast upon marble. But how rapidly does that light grow strong, ge and that deeper, until the powerful allegiance of the soul attains every subject of the heart, and the crimson glow of the other suffuses every feature of her countenance.

AMERICAN HOSPITALITY.—De Chaulis, recruiting after a long journey, had the good fortune to be accosted a spirit by the old inn of the cities. Early one morning he was surprised to see between six and seven hundred young women of the little march up and form a circle around him. An old man explained that he wished to have him wed with them, they had brought their young women to him so that he might choose a wife. The ladies became appeased quite willing to make him happy, and re-expressed themselves. De Chaulis said that, as he was a good spirits, he did not wish to make all the others unhappy by choosing but one. The old man withdrew and consulted together. At length, the company of the ladies appeared and said: "Sir, speak what was the [illegible] that one the others would be unhappy. Take them all." De Chaulis traveled the next morning.

In Dr. ——, a hotel, after a spree, was led home by one of his friends, who, after passing him safely in all directions, rang the bell, and mounted somewhat decisively to the opposite side of the street, to see if it would be answered. Promptly the "pass" was "returned," and the kind spouse, who had waited up for her truant, helped him in all his boldness. "Why, Walter, is this you?" "Yes, my dear." "Where in the world you been so late?" "Been out on a [illegible] hops, my d-d-darling." "Why, Walter, you are intoxicated!" "I guess, dear, I enjoyed myself very much indeed." "Where could you get so drunk I should like to know, sir?" "Because, my darling, all of other parents shut up."

Hon. F. A. Sawyer, author of the "Homestead Exemption" law, was the first person to establish Sunday schools in Fredericksburg, Va.

THE PRUSSIAN-FRENCH WAR.

The seige of Paris continues and there is reason to fear that the city is torn with internal dissensions, if not fighting and bloodshed. We have had most serious apprehensions as to the fate of France, as our readers know, from the outset. The progress of the war has only tended to confirm those forebodings.

At the present time we have no hope of Paris. Though it may resist with great determination and stubbornness as Metz and Strasburg, and Toul have done, for a time, yet we feel confident it must yield to superior force and discipline.

The hopes indulged by many, that other powers would interfere, were blasted, the moment the city of Paris declared for the Republic. We have not looked for peace from that hour. Even before that moment, with France throttled by a power bent on the acquisition of territory, allied by interest and other relations to the principles of monarchy and to the principal crowned heads of Europe, it is simply Utopian to look for any favor from such a quarter to Republics.

We look, therefore, for the crushing of the Republican idea in France and the ultimate settlement of the question on a basis, which denudes France of some of her territory, and puts upon her throne a head thoroughly identified with the interests and proclivities of the monarchical powers of Europe.

Lyons and other great towns of France, may become centres of agitation and the raising of armies, but Prussia has already adopted the policy of nipping them in the bud, and the French, single handed, will be beaten at every point, and forced to yield to the right demands of the conqueror.

THE WAGES OF BASENESS.

Certain members of the Bar in North Carolina have entered into a severe account with themselves, as well as with the public, in following Holden and Kirk. They have sacrificed their principles, obtained the reward and accepted the wages of baseness, and they now feel they have suffered degradation, not only in the public estimation but in their own. There is no hope for a man who is degraded in his own estimation.

When we were last a candidate for Congress, we received only one vote in all the county of Warren. In our last canvass for Congress, we took occasion, in a speech, to remind the good people of Warren, that only one man in that county had voted for us in a previous canvass. We told them that we had for four long years been degraded in their estimation, but not in our own; for we felt all the while that we were right and they were wrong. We told them there was hope of a man until degraded in his own estimation, from that there was no recovery. The result of the speech and canvass was, that we received every vote of the county save seven.

There is a lesson in this, for Phillips and Scott, Bailey and Boyd, Badger and Boyden.

SHERIFF LEE AND THE BENCH WARRANT.

Sheriff Lee accosted us on the street, on Monday, and complained that we had done him injustice in our notice of the bench warrant against Kirk, in the SENTINEL of that morning. He denied giving Marshal Carrow notice that he had a bench warrant for Kirk. We told the Sheriff we believed he had given the notice to Carrow, because we heard him tell his Deputy to do it, and when Carrow was found with Kirk at Renfrow's, to prevent the service of the warrant, we felt sure the notice had been given as directed. We further told the Sheriff that he could have executed the warrant when we first handed it to him, if he had tried to do so, instead of refusing, as he did.

We think Sheriff Lee was satisfied that he alone was to blame for the opinion that we entertained, namely, that he gave Marshal Carrow notice that he was about to arrest Kirk.

STANDARD, Bellicose.—The Standard has again made its appearance, but in an orphanly condition, having neither father nor mother, head nor tail, proprietor nor editor. The rumor on the streets is, that the concern is under the managerial conduct of the "devil" and edited by Pilgrim Ashley, of Buzzard's Bay. We notice that a change of auspices under which it is now published, has made no corresponding change in its old propensities, for in its very first number under the new regime it has stolen bodily, a local item we wrote last week, concerning the accidental shooting of Judson Ray, without giving any credit. We don't feel flattered by being thus unceremoniously forced to help edit the new concern.

A REPUBLICAN CELEBRATION.—We are indebted to the courtesy of the committee for an invitation to attend the anniversary celebration of the Columbian Literary Society of Trinity College, on Friday evening, 21st October.

AGRICULTURAL ECONOMY.

North Carolina farmers are not liable to the charge of extravagance and waste, in the ordinary use of these terms. They are not wasteful in the costliness of their dwellings, furniture or equipage, nor in the personal apparel of themselves, their wives or daughters, nor in their costly barns and fixtures. They are economical to a fault, perhaps, in the provision they make for their stock, or for the improvement of their farms, or in the education of their children and in their subscription to newspapers. These are matters of the highest importance to them, to their future prosperity and the certain success of their posterity. But in their present modes of farming and cropping they are ruinously wasteful. This is a subject of so much interest to them personally, and to the future growth of the State, they must bear a little plain talk from us.

The amount of cleared land in the State, if properly managed, is ample for the purposes of agriculture for the next thirty years, without a very large accession of emigrant population. Our forests should be protected, as sources of health, moisture, manure and permanent profit in future. They have been wastefully felled, much valuable timber destroyed and the lands worn out by bad tillage. Let your forests remain intact, as far as possible, if for nothing else, but to promote moisture, for fertilizing the cultivated lands and health. The destruction of our forests in the present prevalence of dry summers, will only tend to make the country a parched, arid, and sterile desert. But as a matter of profit, our forests in the future will be worth more for timber, than the lands which they cover.

In the next place, as we have often intimated, our farms must be more skillfully cultivated. To do this, they must be reduced in size and fertilized. The excess of labor required to cultivate one hundred acres of poor land, would pay for fertilizers and the improved culture of fifty acres, which would produce four times the cropping of the hundred acres. Successful planting in the South can only be accomplished by securing more economical labor. This is a great item. What a saving, if one hundred acres of poor land, can be fertilized and cultivated by three hands, instead of working five hands upon two hundred acres unimproved! The results of the cropping in the first case would likely exceed the latter at least double. It is therefore wasteful and extravagant to pursue such a policy as requires the employment of nearly double the labor on large farms, with little or no improvement, instead of employing less labor on half the amount of land, capable of high cultivation.

Again, a Georgia paper, speaking of wasteful farming very properly says, that there is no economy when the crop of cotton is based upon Illinois corn, Missouri bacon, Kentucky mules and Tennessee and Massachusetts hay. This is a hard hit upon Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi planters. North Carolina planters do not go quite so far for all their supplies, but their policy is equally hazardous and blameable. The only sure basis to pitch a cotton or tobacco crop upon, is upon the corn and oat crop raised upon the farm. If you have to rely upon Hyde county or Ohio for corn, upon Baltimore for bacon, and upon Connecticut for hay, at the high prices which prevail, and then add 20 to 25 [illegible] for credit, it requires no prophe[illegible] result. In one year in ten perhaps [illegible]nter might make something, bu[illegible] other nine years will be years of toi[illegible]nxiety, terminating in pecuniary los[illegible] disappointment.

AN UNLAWFUL COMPACT.

We have reason to believe that there is an understanding and arrangement between Marshal Carrow and Gov. Holden, in regard to the custody of George W. Kirk. The Marshal declined, or rather, deferred the arrest of Kirk, on the first issue of the process against him, at the request of the Governor, and while the matter was thus pending, Kirk's men fired on old Mrs. Foust for telling them to stop stealing her corn.

The Marshal and the Governor talked the matter over when Kirk was arrested by Capt. Green, acting as Deputy Marshal.—After the arrest, the Governor and the Marshal talked over the status of Kirk.—We say it is the duty of Holden and company to go Kirk's bail and allow Sheriff Lee to execute the criminal law of the State upon him. We repeat what we have often said before, that Kirk is a better man than those who invited him to the State, or encouraged him in his lawless acts after he got here; and Burgin is no worse, if he did hang men up by the neck to extort confessions from them, than Holden, who employed him for the work, or Judges Pearson, Dick and Settle, who by their failure to perform their judicial duties, encouraged and shielded him in the commission of his crimes.

League combinations brought Kirk and Burgin to the State and encouraged them after they got here, and the Leagues and Judges of the Supreme Court ought to go on their bail bonds. It is mean and cowardly in Holden, Pool, Settle, Abbott and others, who, in carrying out their conspiracy to defeat fair elections in the State, employed these men as their tools, to back down from them now, and leave them to the chances of legal quibbles for escape or a sojourn in the State Penitentiary. The work of Burgin and Kirk was the work of the party, as much as the work of the swindler Littlefield was, and they are as much entitled to the sympathy, fellowship and tangible support of the party as he is.

We do not object to Carrow's giving his private and personal sympathy to Kirk, but we do object to his using the power of his office for that purpose.

TIRED OUT.

Blow-your horn-Billy was asked to take $1,000 of stock in a new Company to run the Standard. "No," said Billy, using one of the Governor's expletives, "I am tired of printing papers for a party that can't read, and where all the leaders are dead heads."

For the Sentinel.

TO D. W. HOLDEN, GOVERNOR.

FRIEND WILLIAM:—I fear the perturbed state of thy mind will hardly allow thee to consider the matters to which I may allude in this letter, with that calmness and meekness of spirit and that eye to the public good, that the fearful responsibilities of thine office should at constantly inspire.—Thou hast done strange things since thou wast made Governor of North Carolina, things believed not warranted by a patriotic policy or an honest purpose, and alarmingly violative of thine obligations to the laws of the State and the fostering care due from the Chief Magistrate to her people. For these things thou hast been weighed in the balances of public opinion, and art found wanting.

The people have spoken and thou mayest not lightly disregard their potent voice. It should urge thee to a calm review of the projected measures inaugurated by thy administration, and as far as thou canst remove the burdens and oppressions complained of and condemned by the people, to do so, and thou shouldst adopt a policy that will be in accord with what thou now knowest to be the will of thy constituency. Thou shouldst not let the pride of opinion betray thee into obstinacy or thy ambition lead thee beyond a prudent discretion.

Shakespeare I think said, "there is a tide in the affairs of men taken at its flood, leads on to fortune," and I may add, that there is an undercurrent at its ebbing, which if not guarded against, will sweep them down to misfortune, disgrace and sorrow. Thy Excellency and myself are not strangers, I have long known thee, but did not know thee well. We have often held friendly counsel together;

Discussed the plans in sage debate
How to poise the scale of fate, but I never dreamed that thou wast an Hazael. And if a prophet at that time had risen up and warned thee that thou wouldst be Governor and inflict the enormities on the peaceable citizens of North Carolina which they are now groaning under, thou wouldst have exclaimed in astonishment, "but what! is thy servant a dog, that he should do this thing?" But thou art now Governor of the State, and the power invested in thee by the people hath turned thy head, and thou hast become a terror not so much to evil doers as to the quiet and orderly citizen. The indications of the late election leave scarcely a doubt, that the wise, the honest and the good, would hail with joy thine abdication of office.

Thy misdeeds need not be written by me. Thou carriest their recollection constantly in thy bosom,—they disturb thy quiet by day, and create hideous visions in thy nightly slumbers, causing thee to fear personal danger and to have placed around thee constantly a military guard, the like of which was never before done by any Governor of our quiet State. But, "the wicked flee when no man pursueth." Thy fear of personal violence is only ideal—the emanation of a guilty conscience. Thou needst not fear, nobody will hurt thee. So, quiet thy apprehensions.

I know thou art in a dilemma, and at thy wits end. Thou hast lost both the respect and confidence of the people, and shouldst thou now change thy policy and conform thy administration to the known wishes of thy constituency, they will suspect thy sincerity and doubt thy ultimate purpose. For thy political course in North Carolina has been so varied and so unstable, embracing every point of the political compass, and especially the late alarming attempt to invest thyself with regal power supported by an army of mercenaries raised without the warrant of law or precedent, that thy life-time will be too short whatever may be thy future zeal to promote the good of the State, to redeem thy lost reputation for honesty or induce the people to confide in thy sincerity. And now that

Gubernatorial powers intoxicate thy brain,
Rebuke and kindly counsel may sober thee again.

Then be not angry if I with candor warn, admonish and counsel thee. Thou shouldst be ashamed of the injustice of that partizan and partial policy that has marked thine administration—a policy that persecuted the wise, the peaceable and the good, and screened from just punishment the convict and the criminal. Such a policy is not only disgraceful to the Executive of a State, but wicked and demoralizing to her citizens, and will not longer be submitted to by the people of North Carolina.

I warn thee that the incoming Legislature will put a bit into thy mouth that will make thee travel quietly, equitably and truly the road marked out by the laws and the Constitution of the State; and thou mayest as well make up thy mind to give up thy fond hope of longer playing the tyrant in North Carolina. Thou needst not "lay the flattering unction to thy soul" that the President and Congress will come to thy help and place North Carolina again under military rule. That game,—as Kirk said to Pearson's writ of habeas corpus "has played out." It is a little more than they now dare do. The people of the North and West are beginning to peep into the long reconstruction tyranny practised on the Southern States, and say it must be stopped; and another move in that direction by the President and Congress will work their release from power and place. And though thou hast done their dirty work in North Carolina faithfully and with a zeal worthy a better cause, yet they must of necessity leave thee now to the tender mercies of the indignant and much abused people of the State.

What they will do through their representatives in the approaching Legislature, was but too plainly indicated by the late canvass for thee to misunderstand. And unless thou canst find means to escape their hands, I think thou mayest fear they will take thee through an ordeal that will blister thy callous heart, and burn thy pale face to crimson. I use these strong figures not in anger, but to warn thee and impress thee with the detestation and contempt the honest and upright voters of North Carolina view thy wilful and untoward administration, and the thorough sifting it will probably receive from their pledged representatives, that thou mayest ponder thy condition and determine under the circumstances, what thou hadst best do.

In the meantime, as I am thy senior in years, I will presume to counsel thee; and if thou wilt calmly consider my suggestions and act in accordance therewith, I opine, thou wilt be relieved from a grievous burden and enjoy a peace and quiet of mind to which thou hast long been a stranger. I will now proceed to tell thee what I think thou hadst best do. Go to thy friend Ulysses at Washington and say, "Alas my friend I have done a very foolish thing! and grievously mischievous to my reputation at home. In my zeal to perpetuate Radicalism in North Carolina, I was impolitic in my plans, and the means used vexed the people. They turned on me with great indignation and in their wrath elected a Conservative Legislature, blasting my long cherished hope of another step up the ladder of fame, to a seat in the United States Senate. But that is not so much a consideration, as the mischievous consequences certain to follow in the progress of its session. It will be rigid in its restraints of Executive power; it will give little heed to suggestions or recommendations of the Governor—and exceedingly annoying and troublesome will it be in its enquiries and untrammeled investigations—the latter most to be dreaded. Its smelling committees may bring to the surface, things unpleasant to be known and possibly implicate—but no matter, thou canst say that I am in a fix! To resign under the circumstance, would indicate cowardice, cowardice indicates fear, and fear indicates guilt. I don't want to resign; I want to be relieved. I want office; give me a commission abroad. Send me to Hayti, where the customs, manners and color of the people suit my taste, and are more congenial with my instincts for the enjoyment of social and religious liberty. If thou wilt grant this my earnest request, thou shalt have a more tangible proof of my gratitude that empty thanks; and when at St. Domingo all my energies and diplomatic skill shall be put in requisition to advance the interest, not so much of myself, as to promote the good relations and prosperity of the two governments. None know better than thyself that the African is now exerting an influence in the progress of civilization that should not be disregarded, and the accredited representatives of the United States to any of the Governments of that people, should, I think, be men likely to [illegible] have been long in social contact with that race, and have studied their peculiar characteristics from actual observation." Thus addressed, I think the President will be glad to accommodate thee, and there is no doubt of thy approval by the Senate. Then I would further counsel thee, that, so soon as thy friend Ulysses assures thee of thy appointment, the then regular three offices into the hands of thy lieutenant, and set thyself at work to arrange thine own affairs. Sell all thy worldly possessions for gold, ascertain which of thy family will not go with thee abroad, and give to them their portion of thine estate, and do every thing necessary to avoid a return to the United States.—And above all, let the sequel of thy political career in thy native State admonish and school thee into the conviction of the superior excellence of truth, honesty and sincerity, and that under all circumstances and in every condition of life, remember that "honesty is the best policy."

In conclusion I wish to remind thee, my quondom friend, that thou whilst Provisional Governor play'dst me a very scurvy trick, for which I now take my revenge in the good advice above tendered; hoping if followed it will mitigate thy present sufferings and be a solace in thy declining years.

Fare thee well,

HEZEKIAH.

TAPPEY, LUMSDEN & CO.,

PETERSBURG, VA.,
OWNERS AND MANUFACTURERS OF THE UNRIVALLED
Virginia Cotton and Hay Press.
PATENTED JULY 5th, 1870.

THIS PRESS IS SO CONSTRUCTED, AND OF SUCH IMMENSE POWER, THAT WITH A Lever, one man can press a bale of Cotton, weighing from 450 to 500 pounds, or a horse can be hitched to the opposite side, and press a bale of the same size in one minute's time.

The above Presses are now offered by me to the public, with the convictions that they must supercede all other kinds of Cotton and Hay Presses; and are so simple, being a combination of the Lever, Windlass and Toggle Joint, that every person can understand it at first sight. We also manufacture the BEASLEY PRESS, patented September 21st, 1869, but would recommend the VIRGINIA PRESS as far superior in every respect.

PRICE, (ON CARS HERE) $185

We also furnish our Celebrated HORSE POWER GEARING, with which two horses can do the work of four with the ordinary powers, at the reduced price of $55 00.

The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurance, of the

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1870.

Mr. IRBY N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

ATTENTION FIRE CO., No. 2.—Meet at Fireman's Hall, this (Wednesday) evening, for drill.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS, &c.—We observe that Dr. Blacknall, of the Yarborough House, has just received a very fine Piano Forte, from the establishment of the Tramaine Brothers. The improvements recently made, and yet being made in the Yarborough House by Dr. B., are, in every particular, of a superior character.

MRS. ETTINGER—NEW MILLINERY.—We dropped up into Mrs. Ettinger's millinery store rooms, yesterday, just to see if she had been receiving any thing new in her line; and we found ourself in a regular whirlwind of bonnets, hats, feathers, flowers and ribbons; gauzes, ruches, and such other things as go to the complete outfit of a fashionable lady's head gear. The variety of the stock was confusing, and the beauty dazzling. We noticed several very beautiful bridal bonnets, and what is more, we saw some very beautiful ladies examining them; but we won't "tell tales out of school." We saw one of Raleigh's most charming daughters there, also, trying on hats, and what was a little remarkable, every thing she put on looked pretty. To test the matter, and find out the mystery of this, we selected the very commonest and ugliest hat we could find in the establishment and asked her to put it on. She did so, and that looked pretty, too, so we concluded that the bearer makes a great difference in the looks of a hat or bonnet, and, indeed, of any other article of dress. Should you ask us the name of the party, we might ask you not to urge the question, for we don't want to get into any scrapes. We advised Mrs. Ettinger to remove her looking glass, and prevail on our young friend to stay and try on bonnets, that customers may see how nice they look.

A COMMERCIAL NOTICE.—We clip the following paragraph from the Daily Bulletin, a commercial and financial journal published in New York, complimentary to one of our enterprising Raleigh Dry Goods houses. It is a very rare thing for an establishment so far off in the country to receive so flattering a notice from a journal in the great commercial emporium:

"One of the handsomest and most commodious dry goods stores in the South is that of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., of Raleigh, N. C. The building is 43 feet 4 inches wide, by 120 feet deep, three stories high, with an iron front; and the store proper is 40 x 120 feet and 15 feet high. The two upper stories comprise one room, "Tucker Hall," the finest exhibition room in the State, and, with few exceptions, in the South. The entire establishment is the tangible evidence of the successful working of a business conducted on sound principles. The present owners are the representatives of a mercantile house of fifty years standing, who, when injured nearly to the point of ruin in the late war, by great exertion kept their business running and paid their creditors dollar for dollar."

A CASE OF COOL IMPUDENCE.—We have heard of many acts of cool impudence, some of which were so decidedly cool as to pass, par excellence, into proverbs; but we have not heard of anything in this line which surpassed an incident that occurred at the National Hotel, last week. The incident as related to us, is as follows:

A number of leading Rads, among whom are named Phillips, Badger, Young, Ashley, Logan Harris, Abbott and Billy Smith, met in a private room at the National to cuss and discuss the subject of reviving the Standard. A lady boarder, in a room not far off, happened to be in a musical mood, and was indulging in singing—perhaps playing on the piano. This somewhat disturbed the caucus, and they sent word to the young lady to stop her music!

We do not know what the immediate result of this cool request was, but we see the Standard is out again.

PRIVATE INSANE ASYLUM.—The Wilmington Journal says, that since the war the number of insane persons in that section of the State has increased so rapidly that the State Asylum cannot meet the wants of community, and that a movement is on foot to establish a private Asylum for that unfortunate class. We have no doubt that a first class institution of that kind, to meet the wants of those who are able to provide for their own unfortunate ones, will be needed and would meet with good patonage. The necessity now thrown upon the State to provide for the insane needy of both races, which will be very largely increased, will prevent the present scheme of the Radicals which proposed to take care of and provide for every insane person, rich and poor, black and white, in the State, from being carried out, and will render private Asylums not only desirable but necessary.

FARMERS' AND MINERS' BANK.—The public will do well to bear in mind the notice of A. T. Davidson, Esq., President of this Bank, in reference to the embezzlement of the notes of this Bank, which he charges were placed on special deposite with their agents, Messrs. Fels & Co., of Baltimore, and which he says, have been embezzled. He warns the public not to trade in the 5s, 10s and 20s of the Bank. Perhaps it would be prudent in the people not to receive or purchase any of the issues of that Bank.

MR. WILSON.—We are pained to learn that our friend Rev. N. H. D. Wilson of Greensboro, has been prostrated for some days by a severe attack of sickness. A friend who saw him on Saturday last, states that he was considered better, and hopes were entertained of his recovery.

COWARD & HARRIS.—This is an excellent Commission House in Norfolk, Va. Like many of the merchants of that city, they are North Carolinians, and may be relied upon. The fertilizer which they advertise in the SENTINEL is highly spoken of, and comes directly from the manufactory to them.

DR. W. W. YOUNG,
Chairman Executive Committee.

WANTS A NOTICE.—That fellow, Solomon John, imported from Pennsylvania to instruct the savages of Pasquotank in the progressive ideas of the "higher civilization," and to do 'jos' as we do up North," seems to be very desirous of getting a notice at the hands of the SENTINEL. He says the SENTINEL is a "guerrilla sheet" and that its "arguments are of the vulgar sort," and complains that it "cannot speak of an opponent with respect." Well, we must confess that we did not set out with a view to edit the SENTINEL with reference to the approbation or disapprobation of carpet baggers and scalawags, nor did we expect the plaudits of the rogues and rascals whom it became our duty to expose and lash.—We feel gratified to find that our course has not pleased such characters as this editor and the men to whom he gave the influence of his paper, what little it was, and his personal influence, if he had, any, in stealing and plundering, and in oppressing, slandering and villifying the people of the State. When we are obliged to notice such men, we must be permitted to deal with them as they deserve.

CONVICTED.—We learn that Charles H. Snead, of Johnston, charged with horse stealing, was tried and convicted, last week, at Smithfield, His Honor, Judge Watts, presiding. We have not heard whether Massey, included in the same charge, had a trial or not; nor have we yet heard the length of time to which Snead has been sentenced to the Pen.

TOURNAMENT.—One of the features of the exhibition of the Cape Fear Agricultural Society, which opens on the 15th of November, will be a grand tournament, at which the prizes to the successful Knights are, 1st, a horse valued at $500; 2nd, a horse valued at $300; 3rd, a saddle and bridle valued at $100; and, 4th, for the best rider, a pair of spurs.

NOT ENTITLED.—A bachelor was recently denied the benefit of the homestead, in Newnan, Ga., as not being the "head of a family." He appealed and the decision of the court below was sustained. Bachelors will make a note of it.

Capt. Johnston, bearer of the dispatches of the British government was roughly handled by the Prussians near Paris, and was subsequently roughly handled by the French, under the impression that he being an Englishman, he must be a spy. The English are unpopular with both armies.

TOURS, Sept. 27.—The prefect of the Department Du Nord, writes on the 25th: "The following has been received from Paris dated 23rd, by pigeon carrier Pigeon: A Division de Gen. Maudhay yesterday attacked the heights of Ville Juif. The battle began at 2 o'clock in the morning. After sustaining a sharp Prussian fire for some time, our troops carried the redoubts of Maising, Saque, Ville Juif and Hautes Bruyers. We occupy them now. The Garde Mobile behaved well. The enemies loss is great. The same day the French made reconnoissance and drove the enemy from the village of Dremicy. The same day a force from St. Denais attacked Pierre Fotte, which Prussians had occupied in considerable force, and the French troops returned to St. Denais deserted.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The arrest of Jacoby, the noted Liberal, Prussian and once Grand Duke of Baden, is confirmed.

Despatches from Marseilles state that the city is borrowing money and arming with its traditional patriotism.

The Prussians around Paris are said to maintain strict discipline. The departments of "Seine et Oise" and "Seine et Marne" are under their control with the exception of Paris.

TOURS, Sept. 27.—Favre's official report, concludes that from the manner in which all his efforts for peace were met by the Germans, that they are determined upon conquest. The interviews have together useless, as they have proved that Prussia contrary to her declarations is fighting against the French Nation, which must arise en masse, either to disarm the Provisional government, or to resist the enemy to the end.

The removal of the governmental delegation to a point further South is imminent. A meeting of the council to-day, resolved upon the most energic defence measures. A requisition is to be made immediately for all the fire arms in the hands of the people.

The inhabitants everywhere are to lodge and feed the French troops. All men under 25 are called into actual service. There is a great scarcity of arms.

FAVRE has made an official report of the result of his mission, explaining the terms offered and why they were rejected. The Ministers have an official dispatch from Orleans today, that being unable to resist the overwhelming force, commanded by Prince Albert, Orleans has been evacuated in good order.

The announcement is repeated that the Emperor has revoked the decree creating the Regency, and it is asserted that he has sent an envoy to Metz to consult Bazaine.

The Foreign office has advised North German diplomats abroad that there is no Government except at Paris. The Government de facto exists at Tours, hence Paris is left to bear military treatment.

ROME, Sept. 27.—The city is quiet; confidence is returning. The Pope and the cardinals reappear in public.

THE MOST VIGOROUS AND PROGRESSIVE COMPANY IN THE WORLD.

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,
GENERAL AGENTS,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,000,000 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is comprised of the notes of lapsed holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many Companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as the case is in Note Companies.
8. The sum of $2,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured. Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. The modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Redeemed policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $31,221,141.00.
18. Its premiums average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $12,000,000 greater than any other company.

NORTH CAROLINA MINERALS.

Snow Creek, Sept. 1, 1870.

Mr. [illegible]

Our [illegible] Gen. Cowan, Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture, [illegible] Capt. [illegible] W. Dewey, from Washington City, came on a peregrinating tour through this section of North Carolina, for the purpose of examining our mines, minerals, &c., particularly of the counties below and adjoining Iredell, as his life here with cent. inclination. He remained in these counties below, for perhaps two months, when at the suggestion of some friend in Cabarrus county, he came on to my house, and remained with me and with the late Mr. Wm. M. Allison several days, perusing his extensive location.

He seemed to be an intelligent, sensible and business-like man.

While here, he visited, in company with myself, the black lead mine, on the land and near the grist mill of Mr. Joel B. King, on Snow Creek, where we dug out a good [illegible] of the lead, which after testing, he pronounced equal, if not the best he had ever examined.

The list herewith sent was made out by him at my request before he left for Washington City. It was laid in a book and forgotten, or rather, not found for many years, when lately it turned up.

I intended to have had it published at the time if it had not been mislaid; and my object in asking its publication now in your paper, is to bring to the notice of our people, particularly, our Cabarrus friends the fact, that a quarry of rose-colored Syenite rock lies in their county and near the N. C. Railroad, which has been built since the list was written. The Syenite is susceptible of a most beautiful polish—finer than the best marble, and is used for mantle-boards, table and sideboard covers or tops, and such like. I think the Custom House in the city of New York is built of Syenite of a gray color, brought from a quarry near Boston, Massachusetts.

Capt. Dewey had his specimens numbered and indicated on the list, a few of which he divided with me.

If you think proper, give it a place in your columns.

Your Good

W. F. COWAN.

NORTH CAROLINA MINERALS.

No. 1. Gold ore from Gold Hill in Rowan county.

No. 2. Silver ore, from Silver Hill in Davidson county.

No. 3. Zinc, from same.

No. 4. Lead, from same.

No. 5. Copper, from Guilford county or Deep River Copper Mine.

No. 6. Metallic Iron, from near Mount Pleasant, Cabarrus county.

No. 7. Rose-colored Syenite, from the plantation of Mrs. Miller, about 4 miles south west from Mt. Pleasant.

No. 8. Baryta spar, from McMackin's Mine in Cabarrus county, about 14 miles west of Gold Hill.

No. 9. Agate, from near the Vanderberg Gold mine, Cabarrus county.

No. 10. Black Oxide of Manganese from near Gold Hill in Iredell county.

No. 11. Lime Spar, from same.

No. 12. Tabular Quartz, from same.

The rose-colored Syenite is found lying directly across the road that runs around or through the south-western portion of Mrs. Miller's plantation. Leave the dwelling house to the left, pass the barn and other out-buildings leaving them also on the left, then follow the road towards the woods taking care to turn to the left and keeping directly around the plantation in a road that turns off to the left and soon leads into a long lane. As you pass up the lane and get near the top of the ridge you will pass over the bed of Syenite, very little of which however shows itself above the ground.

This quarry may be considered as inexhaustible as in all Syenite quarries heretofore discovered; the rock has been found to extend downwards to an unascertained depth, while it likewise covers a considerable extent of land near or directly at the surface. This Syenite of Cabarrus is precisely the same in character as the rose-colored Syenite of Egypt, of which are made Pompey's Pillar, Cleopatra's Needles and numerous other of the Egyptian monuments, which in most cases were taken in solid masses from the quarry of Syene in upper Egypt.

The stones at present used by the North Carolina Gold Grinders are made of a very coarse, rough quality of Granite found a few miles to the South of Salisbury. A large-sized stone costs the gold-men about $20, and as they use two chasers or crushers and a bed-stone, or bed plate, a set of stones requisite for a first class Gold Mill generally costs about $70. These granite chasers and bed stones rarely last more than 4 years before they become so much worn as to require considerable repairs, if not to be condemned altogether. The Syenite would no doubt wear much longer than the Granite, and perhaps a set of Syenite chasers and bed-stone might resist entirely the friction of the ore which is so destructive to the Granite at present in use. The object to be desired is to have chasers that will crush up the ore and not grind it—or in other words, that will flatten out the particles of gold instead of breaking them in still smaller particles and thus causing them to escape the quicksilver and pass off as it were in solution with the water. Chasers made of the Syenite would be rather more weighty than the Granite and could be dressed with a perfectly smooth surface which would stand an infinite amount of friction, more than can be realized by the best Granite known.

The Granite of Rowan is composed of coarse grained quartz and feldspar with a considerable portion of mica; the latter substance decomposing readily leaves the quartz and feldspar to crumble to pieces or easily wear away. The Syenite of Cabarrus is composed of quartz, feldspar and hornblend in such proportions as render it as near as possible indestructible.

If any more can be rendered Mr. Cowan in Washington, at any time, he will please address

SAML. W. DEWEY.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair its natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER IN THE AGENCY OF THE NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., U. S. A.

For the Central and Northern Counties in NORTH CAROLINA.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of

10,000 POLICIES,

and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000,000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any assurance at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and about contesting with Mutual Book rates, are somewhat lower, thats certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and the public, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allaugh Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 14 inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 120,000 lbs. These giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 500 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported in a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet; Size Bale 4½ feet LENGTHWISE; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I send the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., April 16th, 1870.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the plan upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,
JAS. A. WILDER.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Press I have seen.

Respectfully, E. H. FOGUE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly, W. T. HOWLE.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for soundness of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of the Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

MODERATE CIRCUMSTANCES,

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world. They participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

As Insurers, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and seized Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess mutual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

P. F. PESCUD,
